

Give hope, love and practical support to refugees

Close to home

Destitute asylum seekers trying to gain sanctuary in the UK

In northern Iraq

Christians fleeing injustice, assault, kidnap, and torture from Daesh

A group of parishioners from Farm Street Church is walking the 200km Camino of St Ignatius from the shrine of St Peter Claver in Verdu to the Abbey of Montserrat and Manresa from 25th September

Please sponsor them as they undertake this pilgrimage of prayer and solidarity with refugees

Meet the pilgrims

Fr Dominic Robinson SJ

Spiritually uplifting, raising funds for refugees, and, despite the challenge of walking 200 km in mountains, a lot of fun

Jo Siedlecka

This is a way to show my love and care for refugees

Hossein Zand

I am sure it will be a life changing experience which seldom we come upon in our lives
